7ᵗʰ International FLINS Conference on Applied Artificial Intelligence

August 29-31, 2006
Genova, Italy

FLINS 2006 is the seventh in a series of conferences on Applied Artificial Intelligence. It follows the successful FLINS'94 in Mol, FLINS'96 in Mol, FLINS'98 in Antwerp, FLINS 2000 in Bruges, FLINS 2002 in Gent, and FLINS 2004 in Blankenberge, Belgium. FLINS 2006, for the first time to be held outside of Belgium, will once again aim at covering state-of-the-art research and development in all aspects related to Applied AI.

FLINS, an acronym for Fuzzy Logic and Intelligent technologies in Nuclear Science, is a well-established international research forum to advance the theory and applications of computational intelligence for applied research in general and for nuclear science and engineering in particular.
